

A close-up photograph of a mechanical component, possibly a gear or a part of a machine. The central focus is a row of ten sharp, pointed teeth or blades, arranged in two rows of five. The teeth are light-colored, possibly brass or steel, and show signs of wear and discoloration. The surrounding metal is dark and textured, with various bolts and structural elements visible. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the sharp edges of the teeth against a dark background.

NE

moj
reznuti svoju
budućnost zbog
OVISNOSTI